Dear Sir or Madam

My name is James T. Kirk. I'm the captain of the space ship Enterprice. The reason I'm contacting all the Earth's presidents to invite you in my name and on behalf of the Enterprise's crew to our Saint Valentine's Costume party.

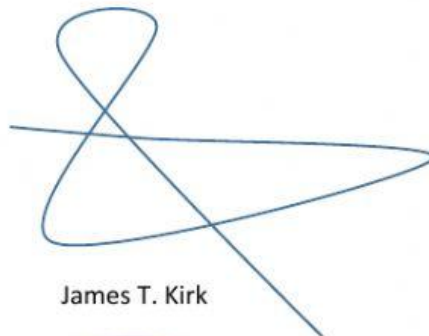

We would like to broaden the friendship between Earth inhabitants and alien civilisations like the Vulcan, Acamarian, Ba'ku or Gorn communities.

We will celebrate the party in our ship, on the main deck. The party will take place on February 14th Saint Valentine's Day. The party will start at 20:00. Each person attending can bring four companions.

It is a costume party. We expect all those attending to wear a disguise preferably a Saint Valentine themed costume, but this isn't mandatory.

We would appreciate that you confirmed your assistance by February 12th. We are looking forward to seeing you.

Yours sincerely
