

Read the following statements carefully. Decide whether each statement is True (T) or False (F).

1. Question words such as "Who" and "Where" can help students generate ideas effectively. (☒)
2. Writing a plan for an essay helps students organize their ideas and language. (☐)
3. Revising an essay focuses more on checking spelling and grammatical mistakes. (☐)
4. Pool of ideas activities should only be done individually, not as a class. (☐)
5. Brainstorming activities should always focus on the quality of ideas rather than the quantity. (☐)