

1 It is logical that when factories are ... workers tend to lose their jobs.

- a) automatic
- b) automation
- c) automated

2 They are not used ... supper so late.

- a) to having
- b) of having
- c) to have

3 Be careful; she has her eyes ... you.

- a) for
- b) at
- c) on

4 In spite of the anesthetic, I was fully ... during the operation.

- a) awake
- b) sensitive
- c) conscious

5 Today a man was ... down the street by my dog.

- a) chased
- b) hunted
- c) sped

6 I don't ... to see her again until next month.

- a) think
- b) expect
- c) wait

7 Some drivers, after ..., annoy their fellows.

- a) passing by
- b) taking over
- c) overtaking

8 I had ... news of what she was doing in London.

- a) several
- b) little
- c) few

9 Now that he is retired, he enjoys ... more time watching documentaries.

- a) spending
- b) to take
- c) taking

10 His debt now amounts ... $10,000.

- a) in
- b) with
- c) to

11 You demand too much of them; they are not really equal ... the project.

- a) for

- b) to
- c) with

12 The student is still dependent ... his parents.

- a) on
- b) from
- c) with

13 Will you have ... to tell your manager about it?

- a) some nerves
- b) some nerve
- c) the nerve

14 Boys and girls ... enjoyed the show.

- a) both
- b) either
- c) alike

15 The reconstruction of the city is now

- a) well under way
- b) well in the way
- c) through the way

16 The production goes well now, although there were some

- a) last straws
- b) teething troubles

c) starting problems

17 If I could understand this alphabet, I ... the article.

a) read

b) will read

c) would read

18 Please ... and see me some time – you are welcome.

a) come to

b) come away

c) come around

19 I could ... panic in her voice.

a) desist

b) detect

c) detest

20 Thousands of tourists use the ... of footpaths across these hills.

a) network

b) grid

c) circuit

21 The professors ... with coronavirus infection one after the other.

a) went down

b) went off

c) went under

22 He agreed to give me $100, ... the $300 he had already lent me.

- a) extra to
- b) surplus to
- c) in addition to

23 What do you usually ... for delivering things?

- a) demand
- b) charge
- c) cost

24 We chose some attractive ... paper for the present.

- a) covering
- b) wrapping
- c) packing

25 It was a beautiful cloth ... from velvet.

- a) worn
- b) threaded
- c) woven

26 We have ... of time to catch the flight.

- a) enough
- b) plenty
- c) great deal

27 She put the letters into the wrong envelopes ... mistake.

- a) on
- b) with
- c) by

28 Mike seems confident but you ... never judge by appearances.

- a) might
- b) should
- c) could

29 I couldn't go fishing because it began to ... with rain.

- a) flow
- b) drench
- c) pour

30 They ... for the same job.

- a) chose
- b) referred
- c) applied