

1. What is the definition of a literary genre?
 - A) A writing style only used in poetry
 - B) A category of literature based on content, style, or form
 - C) A type of fiction involving historical events
 - D) A format used only for drama scripts
2. Which of the following is an example of fiction?
 - A) A history textbook
 - B) A novel about a fantasy world
 - C) A biography of a famous person
 - D) A newspaper article
3. Which genre is intended to be performed on stage or screen?
 - A) Poetry
 - B) Fiction
 - C) Drama
 - D) Nonfiction
4. What makes nonfiction different from fiction?
 - A) Nonfiction always uses rhyming language.
 - B) Nonfiction focuses on facts and real events.
 - C) Nonfiction is always written in verse.
 - D) Nonfiction always includes fictional characters.
5. Which subgenre involves magical elements and imaginary worlds?
 - A) Mystery
 - B) Fantasy
 - C) Historical Fiction
 - D) Biography
6. What is a key feature of poetry?
 - A) It tells a detailed factual story.
 - B) It uses rhythm and structure to express emotions and ideas.
 - C) It is always written in chapters.
 - D) It requires dialogue and stage directions.
7. Which genre includes works like memoirs and autobiographies?
 - A) Fiction
 - B) Poetry
 - C) Nonfiction
 - D) Drama
8. What is the focus of the mystery genre?
 - A) Exploring futuristic worlds
 - B) Solving puzzles or crimes
 - C) Depicting real historical events
 - D) Sharing personal experiences
10. Which subgenre of fiction often includes futuristic technology and space exploration?
 - A) Romance
 - B) Science Fiction
 - C) Historical Fiction
 - D) Fantasy
11. What is an example of a hybrid genre?
 - A) A science fiction novel with romantic elements
 - B) A historical account of a war
 - C) A poem written in rhyming verse
 - D) A drama script

