

Confused words with B

1. BESIDE / BESIDES

There is not much to do _____ setting the table.

There was a small table _____ the bed.

_____ Peter and me, who else is coming to your party tonight ?

Sarah was _____ herself with joy, when Tom proposed to her.

It was too late to go to the cinema. _____, I was too busy.

2. BRING / TAKE / FETCH

Can you _____ me to the station, please ?

You can _____ your wife to our party.

This glass has been used - please _____ me a clean one.

Can you _____ some milk when you come home ?

She _____ the dogs for a walk every morning.

He _____ another chair from the dining room. (s.p.)

3. BEGIN / START

The book was very technical and I couldn't _____ to understand what it was about.

It _____ off well, but I soon got bored.

Losing the contract was the _____ of the end of his career.

My car wouldn't _____ this morning, so I had to come by bus.

4. BAKE / FRY

Shall I _____ you an egg, or would you prefer boiled?

Kelly's mom always used to _____ the best cookies.

The cooking instructions say _____ it at 180°C for half an hour.

It is healthier to grill or steam your food than to _____ it.

5. BORN / BORNE

Sarah was _____ and brought up in Madrid.

He had _____ their insults for years.

They say that in China a new baby is _____ every five minutes.

She has _____ all her problems with great courage.

6. BEAT / WIN

No matter who _____ the war, there will be heavy casualties on both sides.

She _____ the poor horse, but it couldn't go any faster.

I'm not very good at chess. He always _____ me.

I have never _____ any money on the lottery.

7. BUILDING / HOUSE

See that large _____ over there? Well, that's where I work.

I'm worried about leaving him alone in the _____ all day.

The once-empty site was now covered with _____.

