

Complete the sentences with the correct verb from the list:

get on with, look up to, be in touch with, fall out with, grow apart from, take after, grow up together/with, be close to.

1. I _____ my best friend, Mia, ever since we were kids. We always support each other.
2. I really _____ my older brother because he's always so calm and wise.
3. After high school, I _____ my childhood friends. We all went in different directions and lost contact.
4. I _____ my aunt. She's always so kind and caring toward everyone.
5. I've known Sam for years, but we don't _____ as much anymore. Life has taken us in different directions.
6. My little sister definitely _____ me. We have the same sense of humor and love for adventure.
7. I try to _____ my cousins, even though we live in different cities now.
8. We _____ when we were kids, but we never had any major disagreements.

Match the definitions

Match each verb with its correct definition.

1. get on with
  - a. To have a strong relationship and share personal details.
  - b. To admire someone for their qualities or achievements.
  - c. To stop talking to someone due to a disagreement.
  - d. To become less connected or distant from someone over time.
  - e. To resemble a family member in appearance or behavior.
  - f. To continue a friendly relationship with someone, usually through communication.
  - g. To have a harmonious relationship with someone.
  - h. To spend your childhood together with someone.
2. look up to
3. be in touch with
4. fall out with
5. grow apart from
6. take after
7. grow up together/with
8. be close to

Choose the correct verb

Choose the correct verb to complete each sentence.

1. We _____ every week to talk about our plans and catch up.
  - a) get on with
  - b) fall out with
  - c) be in touch with
2. Even though I don't always agree with her, I _____ my grandmother because she's so wise.
  - a) take after
  - b) look up to
  - c) grow up with
3. After the argument, we _____ and didn't speak for months.
  - a) get on with
  - b) fall out with
  - c) grow apart from
4. I _____ my father when it comes to making decisions.
  - a) grow up together with
  - b) take after
  - c) be close to
5. I _____ my childhood friends and hardly see them anymore.
  - a) grow apart from
  - b) fall out with
  - c) be in touch with
6. I've known Carla for years, and we've always _____ very well.
  - a) get on with
  - b) take after
  - c) grow up with
7. We _____ so well that we don't need to speak every day, but I always feel connected to her.
  - a) grow apart from
  - b) be in touch with
  - c) look up to
8. Even though we _____ together, I feel like we've drifted apart as adults.
  - a) get on with
  - b) grow up together
  - c) take after

Correct the mistakes

There are mistakes in some of the sentences. Correct them using the appropriate verb form.

1. I don't get on my sister very well lately.
2. I look after my mother a lot because she is older now.
3. I fell out with my best friend after that huge misunderstanding.
4. My cousin and I grew up apart from each other, so we hardly talk now.
5. He really looks up to his father, who is a very successful businessman.
6. I take after with my uncle in terms of how we both handle stressful situations.
7. I am still in touch with my old high school friends.
8. I was so close to my childhood friend, but now we barely communicate.