

It's very cold by the lake and the penguins are hungry. They can't get any fish to eat because there's lots of ice on the water. A kind man who is camping near the lake sees the problem and makes a hole in the ice and catches fish for the penguin family.