Making Comparisons

Fill in the blanks with "just as...as" and "not as...as".

just as...as (=)	not as...as (≠)
Used to express that two things are equal in some way.	Used to show that one thing is less than the other in a particular way.

This cake is _____ delicious _____ the one you made last week.	=
The new student is _____ friendly _____ the others in the class.	=
My phone is _____ expensive _____ yours.	≠
His handwriting is _____ neat _____ hers.	≠
The weather today is _____ cold _____ it was yesterday.	≠
This dress is _____ beautiful _____ the one I saw in the shop.	=
My car is _____ fast _____ his sports car.	≠
The hotel is _____ comfortable _____ the one we stayed at last year.	=
Watching TV is _____ productive _____ reading a book.	≠
The road here is _____ busy _____ the one in the city center.	≠

LIVEWORKSHEETS