The Danger of Power Tools

power saw

nail gun

safety goggles

WHAT CAN HAPPEN?

Did you know that each year power tools cause more than 100,000 accidents in the United States? The most dangerous tools are power saws. Last year 40,000 people cut (0) themselves using them. Another dangerous tool is the nail gun. On average, an American man injures (1) himself with a nail gun every twenty minutes – that's 28,600 accidents per year!

WHAT TO DO?

So, how can we protect (2) ourselves from these dangerous machines?

- You should always wear suitable clothes – you can protect (3) yourself by wearing safety goggles and strong gloves.
- Make sure your power tool has a safety device. Then, if something goes wrong, the machine will turn (4) off immediately.
- Never use power tools near water or when it is raining.

And remember, if you are working with another person, make sure you don't stand too close to (5) each other.

Causatives

1 Use

When you have something done, someone does it for you. It is usually a service that you pay someone to do because it is their job.

I have my hair cut every six weeks. (by the hairdresser)

Carol has her house painted once every five years. (by professional painters)

How often do you have your car checked? (by the garage)

We don't usually say who does the action. But if we say this, we use by:

Paula has her hair cut by Sergio at the hairdresser's in the high street.

NATURAL ENGLISH In everyday English, we can also say get something done:

I'm going to get my hair cut tomorrow.

Don't forget to get the car checked.

2 Form

We use have + object + the past participle of the verb:

AFFIRMATIVE AND NEGATIVE
present simple	I/We/You/They	have	don't have
	He/She/It	has	doesn't have past simple	I/He/She/It/We/You/They	had	didn't have	the house	painted present perfect	I/We/You/They	have had	haven't had
	He/She/It	has had	hasn't had
