

Lukas Forchhammer

He moved to Buenos Aires for 6 months. He returned to Christiania and he joined the writing team "Future Animals".

Lukas Forchhammer was born in Denmark. He grew up in Freetown Christiania (Copenhagen).

Lukas and Marie-Louise had their second daughter (Billie).

He joined the Copenhagen Boys Choir.

They won the European Border Breakers Award Prize.

Lukas and his friends formed the band "Lukas Graham".

Lukas' father died of a heart attack. Lukas Graham released its first album.

The band released its second album. The singles "Mama said" and "7 years" became big hits.

Lukas and his girlfriend Marie-Louise "Rillo" Schwartz Petersen had a daughter (Viola).