My sister, Muriel, has a different routine from mine. She says that she follows an eco-friendly lifestyle. She gets up at 6:30 every day and she makes her own breakfast at home. On Saturday, she always goes to the supermarket with her reusable bag, so she never needs to use the plastic bags from the store. She never buys plastic bottles or food with plastic packages. She usually takes glass containers to buy rice, beans and fresh food. She also sorts the garbage into plastic, paper and organic trash. She cleans up the neighbourhood and waters the plants with my mother every Sunday morning.
