1. What emotions does the narrator associate with his school life in the English village?
   - A) Joy and excitement
   - B) Fear and uncertainty
   - C) Boredom and indifference
   - D) Anger and frustration
2. How does the narrator describe his relationship with his namesake, William Wilson?
   - A) They were best friends who shared everything.
   - B) They were rivals who competed for leadership.
   - C) They had a mutual respect for each other's abilities.
   - D) They ignored each other completely.
3. According to the text, what was the narrator's reaction to Wilson's opposition?
   - A) Indifference in public, but secret fear
   - B) Open hostility and aggression
   - C) Happiness and satisfaction
   - D) Complete acceptance of defeat
4. What does the narrator imply about Wilson's intentions in their rivalry?
   - A) Wilson wants to be the leader.
   - B) Wilson aims to support the narrator.
   - C) Wilson seeks to undermine the narrator's success.
   - D) Wilson desires to be friends with the narrator.
5. What does the narrator feel about Wilson's sympathy towards him?
   - A) It is a source of comfort.
   - B) It is unwelcome and condescending.
   - C) It encourages the narrator to improve.
   - D) It makes the rivalry more intense.

LIVEWORKSHEETS