

1. What is the primary reason the narrator feels anger towards his namesake?
 - A) He is jealous of his wealth.
 - B) The effect of wine on his temper.
 - C) He dislikes his appearance.
 - D) He feels betrayed by him.
2. What does the narrator plan to do when he meets the lady in the garden?
 - A) Discuss their future together.
 - B) Share a secret about his life.
 - C) Carry out a shameful purpose.
 - D) Challenge her husband.
3. How does the narrator describe his feelings during the confrontation with Wilson?
 - A) He feels calm and collected.
 - B) He feels wild with excitement.
 - C) He feels terrified and anxious.
 - D) He feels indifferent to the outcome.
4. What is the significant detail the narrator notices about Wilson after he has been attacked?
 - A) He is wearing a different outfit.
 - B) He is unrecognizable.
 - C) He bears every mark and detail of the narrator's own face.
 - D) He is laughing despite his injuries.
5. What does Wilson imply about the narrator's existence after his defeat?
 - A) That he will always be remembered.
 - B) That he has won a great battle.
 - C) That the narrator is now dead to the world and hope.
 - D) That the narrator should seek revenge.