

CHAPTERS 3-4 ACTIVITIES

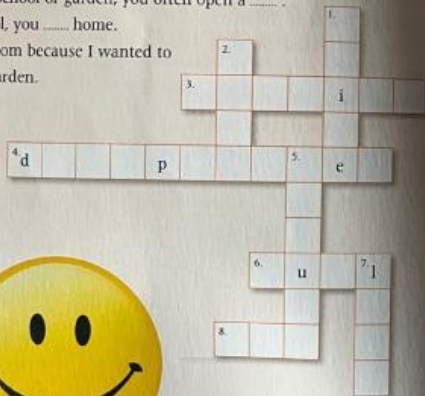

1 Complete the puzzle. Use the clues to help you.

Across

3. ____ is the opposite of later.
4. We can't find our friend. He has ____.
6. A room is ____ when there are many people in it.
8. People are very happy when they ____ a game.

Down

1. There was a ____ on his face when he won the game.
2. To enter a school or garden, you often open a ____.
5. After school, you ____ home.
7. I ____ the room because I wanted to be in the garden.

Did you know?

Dr Scott Fahlman invented the first emoji, the smiley face, in 1982, when he was working as a professor at Carnegie Mellon University in the USA. He suggested using the symbol so people knew the writer was making a joke.

2 Match the sentences to the pictures.

- a. Angel was angry because Jess wanted to go to the police.
- b. Suddenly, Jess looked around, frightened.
- c. While the students were having lunch, they talked about Eddie.
- d. Eddie was happy when he started the new game.

3 Match A to B to make sentences about the story.

A

1. Harry and Matt stopped being friends with Eddie because ...
2. Jess wanted to show the message to the police because ...
3. The police officer said it would be difficult to find Eddie ...
4. Jess stopped the boys when ...
5. Jess should follow the clues and ...

B

- a. she thought that Eddie was in danger.
- b. he didn't go out with them any more.
- c. take pictures of everything she found.
- d. without the video.
- e. Angel sent her a message.