

Name: _____ Date: _____

Spelling

Prefixes mono-, non-, post-, tri- and sub-

REMEMBER: Prefixes are word parts found at the beginning of a base/root word. Prefixes change the meanings of the words they are a part of.

Here are a few prefixes below along with their meanings.

- Tri- "having three" or "every third"
- Mono- "one" or "alone"
- Sub- "below" or "under"
- Non- "not"
- Post- "after"

List Words

monopoly, monologue, monorail, subway, submarine, submerge, subject, postpone, postcard, poster, postgraduate,
postwar triangle, tricycle, tripod, tricolor, trio, nonstop, nonfat,
nonfiction

A. Study the list words below. Now, arrange them in alphabetical order.

monorail, subway, subject, postpone, tricycle

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

B. Read each sentence carefully. Fill in the blanks with the appropriate list word.

6. This book about Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s life is categorized as a _____.

7. Trade between America and The Bahamas increased _____.

8. The Seventh Day Adventists and the Baptists denominations fully _____s the body of a person who is up for baptizing.

9. Cable Bahamas Limited offers a _____ package which includes telephone, internet and cable services.

10. Microsoft and Windows are a _____. No other company sells the services they provide.

C. Match a list word from the box to its synonym or antonym.

nonstop, tripod, postgraduate, submarine, monologue

11. speech, lecture, sermon - _____

12. constantly, persistently, 24/7 - _____

13. a student who has already received a degree but is studying to attain a higher level of degree - _____

14. a watercraft capable of working by itself underwater - _____

15. a three-legged stand - _____

D. How many syllables does each list word have?

16. postcard - _____

17. triangle - _____

18. nonfat - _____

19. tricycle - _____

20. poster - _____