

1. The phrase "defeated the skill of her doctors" implies that Lady Madeline's illness:
 - A) Was easily cured
 - B) Overcame the abilities of her doctors
 - C) Was well understood
 - D) Improved over time
2. The term "gradual but continuous loss of flesh" suggests that Lady Madeline is experiencing:
 - A) Rapid weight gain
 - B) Slow and ongoing deterioration
 - C) Stable health
 - D) Sudden changes in appearance
3. The expression "endless flood of misery" suggests that Usher's feelings are:
 - A) Temporary and fleeting
 - B) Overwhelming and constant
 - C) Rare and unusual
 - D) Joyful and uplifting
4. The phrase "little difference between these attacks and actual death" implies that Lady Madeline's condition is:
 - A) Life-threatening
 - B) Easily treatable
 - C) Improving rapidly
 - D) Stable
5. The term "comfort and cheer" suggests that the narrator's intention is to:
 - A) Make things worse
 - B) Provide support and happiness
 - C) Ignore the situation
 - D) Create more sadness
6. The phrase "could now express these beliefs and feelings only in colours and sound" means that Usher communicates through:
 - A) Words and language
 - B) Visual art and music
 - C) Actions and gestures
 - D) Silence and stillness