A Treasure Hunt in the City

Last Saturday, a group of friends went on a treasure hunt in their city. The treasure was a surprise gift hidden in a (1)..... location. They had a map with clues to help them find it. The hunt was full of excitement and funny moments!

The first clue took them to the city library. It was (2)..... to find because it was next to the park where they usually played volleyball. Inside the library, they searched the bookshelves and found a note hidden between two big books. The note said, "Go to the place where people (3)..... their money."

They knew the next stop was the bank. The bank was opposite the post office, so they got there quickly. The bank was closed, but next to the entrance they found another clue: a piece of (4)..... taped to an ATM. This clue told them to look behind the hospital.

At the hospital, they walked around the (5)..... until they saw a small box under a bench. Inside the box was a toy key and a riddle. The riddle said, "The treasure is waiting where books are sold. Look for the keyhole."

The friends hurried to the bookstore, which was between a café and their favorite shoe (6)..... They looked all around the shelves and tables but didn't see anything unusual. Finally, one of them noticed a small locked box under the counter. They used the toy key to open it.

Inside the box, they found the (7)..... – a bag of chocolates, some Lego minifigures, a gift (8)..... for ice cream, and a note that said, "Great teamwork!" The friends were happy about how they worked together to solve the clues.

After the hunt, they went to the café next door to celebrate. They talked about their favorite parts of the treasure hunt and enjoyed (9)..... ice cream.

A treasure hunt in the city is a great way to explore new (10)..... and have fun with friends. You never know what surprises you might find!
