

Reading comprehension – Nature

Lions:

How far can you hear a lion's roar?

- a. 2 miles
- b. 5 miles
- c. 10 miles

Why do male lions have manes?

- a. To keep warm
- b. To look bigger
- c. To protect their necks when fighting

Tigers:

What makes it easier to tell tigers apart from one another?

- a. Their size
- b. Their stripes
- c. Their roar

What do tigers love to do?

- a. Swim
- b. Climb trees
- c. Run

Elephants:

Why do elephants have massive ears?

- a. To hear better
- b. To keep cool
- c. To look bigger

What can elephants use their trunks for?

- a. Picking up tiny peanuts
- b. Drinking water
- c. Giving themselves a shower
- d. All of the above

Bears:

How big is the giant Kodiak bear?

- a. As big as a small car
- b. As big as a bicycle
- c. As big as a house

What do bears do in the winter?

- a. Hunt for food
- b. Travel to warmer places
- c. Hibernate

