

HELLO, I'D LIKE TO BOOK...

ACTIVITY 2

LISTENING

(On the phone)

Instruction: Listen to the dialogue between Ratu and Receptionist. After that, try to figure out what happen in the dialogue by answering the question below.

- Receptionist : Good afternoon. Theatre Royal Box Office.
- Ratu : Good afternoon. I'd like to book two seats for Friday 11th, please.
- Receptionist : I am sorry we are completely sold out for 11th, miss.
- Ratu : What about Saturday 12th?
- Receptionist : I've got some seats for the matinee but nothing for the evening performance, I'm afraid.
- Ratu : oh well, perhaps I'd better take two matinee seats then, please. How much are they?
- Receptionist : Rp. 25,000 each.
- Ratu : Right, I put a cheque and stamped address envelope in the post.
- Receptionist : What name is it please?
- Ratu : My name is Ratu Kadita.

HELLO, I'D LIKE TO BOOK...

Comprehension Question

Instruction: Match the question in the column A with the answer in the column B.

NO	Column A (Question)	Column B (Answer)
1.	What is the conversation about? ●	● Ratu does the paying transaction by cheque and post it.
2.	What does Ratu book for? ●	● Ratu books for 2 seats on Saturday 12 th .
3.	What happened when Ratu book on Friday 11 th ? ●	● Ratu books for 2 seats in Theatre Royal Box Office.
4.	How many seats that Ratu book? ●	● The conversation is about making and handing a phone call for reserving and booking.
5.	Based on the text, how did Ratu do the paying transaction? ●	● The seats on Friday 11 th are fully sold out.