

Read and choose the best answers

The ostrich

The ostrich is the largest (0) bird in the world, and an adult can be more (1) 90 kilos. Most wild ostriches live(2) Southern Africa, but there are only a(3) of them left. Like all birds, ostriches have wings,(4) they cannot fly. They use(5) wings to help them turn when they are running. Ostriches can run very fast, from 65 to 90 kilometers(6) hour, so it is very difficult(7) other animals to catch them.

Baby ostriches are the same size as chickens and take about 3 years to become adults. Ostriches(8) plants and can live for many days without water.

- | | | | |
|---|----------|-----------|-------------------|
| 0 | A. large | B. larger | C. largest |
| 1 | A. than | B. of | C. like |
| 2 | A. on | B. in | C. at |
| 3 | A. few | B. little | C. lot |
| 4 | A. or | B. and | C. but |
| 5 | A. them | B. their | C. its |
| 6 | A. a | B. an | C. one |
| 7 | A. for | B. to | C. by |
| 8 | A. ate | B. eats | C. eat |

