

1. The term "faint, but clear cry of pain" implies that the sound is:
 - A) Loud and overwhelming
 - B) Soft yet distinctly perceptible
 - C) Completely inaudible
 - D) Joyful and uplifting
2. The term "miserable creature" conveys that Usher feels:
 - A) Proud and accomplished
 - B) Happy and content
 - C) Regretful and anguished
 - D) Indifferent and detached
3. The expression "the breaking of the door" suggests that:
 - A) The door was opened gently
 - B) The door was forcefully destroyed
 - C) The door remained intact
 - D) The door was locked
4. The term "covered in blood from some terrible struggle" implies that Lady Madeline has:
 - A) Fought bravely
 - B) Suffered severe harm
 - C) Experienced a minor injury
 - D) Escaped without injury
5. The expression "the crack... widened like the jaws of some terrible creature" suggests that the crack is:
 - A) Small and insignificant
 - B) Expanding ominously
 - C) Completely stable
 - D) An illusion of the mind
6. The phrase "the deep, dark lake closed over the ruins" implies that:
 - A) The lake is shallow and clear
 - B) The lake consumed the remnants of the house
 - C) The lake is a safe place
 - D) The lake was unaffected by the events |