Name _____

Write the words correctly on the lines.

Camping may seem like a good idea, but do your self a favor and try it at home first! Camping under the stars is a brave thing to under take. Use your backyard as a test to see if you like it. You may not be able to build a camp fire, but at least you'll see what it is like to rough it outdoors.

To sleep outside, you'll need a water proof tent and a sleeping bag. You might also want to grab a pillow from your bed room. It is best to try it in the summer (and not in a snow storm in the middle of the winter!). Before you march outside with your flashlight, be sure to ask your parents' permission. If you're lucky, they might even join you!
