

Part 1Questions 1-5

For each question, choose the correct answer.

1

Sam, I've run out of eggs and need you to buy a dozen. Could you get them by 6 this evening? Thanks, Mum.

- A Sam has to buy eggs for a dozen guests as soon as he can.
- B There are no eggs left so Sam has to get some.
- C Sam's mother wants him to buy 6 eggs.

2

The Kebab Kingdom
£3 minimum charge per person between midday and 2 unless you have a reservation

- A Eating at the Kebab Kingdom only costs £3 at lunchtime.
- B You can have lunch for less than £3 if you have a reservation.
- C People who have booked in advance don't have any extra charge to pay.

Exam tips

Always read the three options (A, B or C) carefully and compare each of them to the text. Once you've chosen the best option, read the text again to check it.

Guidance for candidates

Make sure candidates understand the meaning of the texts, even if they don't know all the words they contain.

As an example, they can answer questions such as:

- What does the expression 'run out' mean in text 1?
- Do you know an expression that means the same as 'make a reservation'?
- What's the meaning of the phrasal verb 'pick up' in text 3?
- Which information in text 4 do you have to focus on?
- Why is the receipt important in text 5?
