Quân: Hi, Jennifer. Is this a good time to talk about the project?

Jennifer: Hi, Quân. Sure, let's talk in the conference room.

Quân: So, we still have a few more weeks before we have to (1)_____ our plan to the city. What do you think we should do?

Jennifer: I think we should look at how much it will (2)_____ to preserve the old statues and buildings. What do you think?

Quân: I agree.

Jennifer: If it costs more than what we can make from tourism, I'm not sure we can (3)_____ them all.

Quân: You're right, and there's a company offering the city a lot of money to knock them down so they can build luxury (4)_____

Jennifer: It would be terrible to lose all those (5)_____ buildings, the pagoda and the statues are over (6)_____ years old. We should definitely (7)_____ them from knocking that down.

Quân: Yes, the Pagoda is the most (8)_____ tourist attraction in the area.

Jennifer: What about the old departments? They don't make much money. Teenagers mostly just go there to take photos for their (9)_____

Quân: I've been thinking about that. I think we should change the (10)_____ apartments into closed stores or even a (11)_____. It was a popular idea in my city. And we can keep the original look of the outside of the building. What's your opinion?

Jennifer: What a (12)_____ idea. I believe that will work.

Quân: Okay, I'll go back to my desk and type up the plan.
