Good morning to all.

My name is and I am studying in class

I am very happy to present my speech before you.

Today is the 26th of January.

At first, I wish you all a happy Republic day.

Republic day is the national festival of India.

This year we are celebratingth Republic day.

We got freedom in 1947 from British rule.

Republic day teaches us the power of unity.

We should always respect and follow the law and order.
