

Word Problems with Missing Numbers 3

1. Two puppies were in my yard. When I looked again there were 10 puppies in my yard. How many more puppies came when I wasn't looking?
2. My garden had 5 daffodils pop up. The next day there were 15 daffodils. How many more daffodils popped up over night?
3. Ten kids wanted glasses of milk. I only had enough milk for 3 glasses. How many glasses do I still need to get?
4. I ordered some bars of chocolate from my granddaughter. First I ordered 5 bars of chocolate. I ended up with 20 bars of chocolate. How many more did I end up ordering?