

THERE IS / THERE ARE

"hai"

Affirmative

- There _____ a book on the table.
- There _____ three apples in the basket.
- There _____ a cat in the garden.
- There _____ two chairs in the room.
- There _____ a pen in my bag.
- There _____ many people at the party.
- There _____ a TV in the living room.
- There _____ four cups on the kitchen counter.
- There _____ a mistake in your answer.

Negative

- There _____ a pencil on the desk.
- There _____ many books in the library.
- There _____ a bus stop near my house.
- There _____ a dog in the park.
- There _____ any teachers in the classroom.
- There _____ any chairs in the hallway.
- There _____ a lamp in my room.

THERE IS / THERE ARE

"hai"

Interrogative

- _____ there a computer in your office?
- _____ there a supermarket near here?
- _____ there two cars in the garage?
- _____ there a bus to the airport?
- _____ there any cookies left?
- _____ there a museum in this city?
- _____ there a park behind the school?
- _____ there many students in your class?
- _____ there a restaurant on this street?

Uncountable nouns

the verb is always singular

- There _____ some water in the bottle.
- There _____ any rice in the kitchen.
- _____ there any sugar in the jar?
- There _____ enough time to finish the project.
- _____ there some juice in the fridge?
- There _____ no milk left in the fridge.
- _____ there any coffee in the cup?
- There _____ any flour for the cake?
- There _____ some bread on the table.