1 Look at the pictures and read the instruction leaflet. Which tip does each picture show? Write the number. There is one tip that doesn't match.

Five simple ways to help save the planet

1 The planet is in danger and it is important to do something to save it.

Here are five tips for making our planet a better place!

2
1. Don't wash your clothes at 60°C. Save electricity and wash them at 30°C.
2. Use only water and soap to clean the floor of your bedroom and your desk.
3. When you help in the kitchen, use vegetable waste to make compost. Then you can use the compost to make your flowers grow.
4. Unplug the TV. If you don't, it will still use some electricity.
5. Plant trees in your school garden to keep your school cool.

3 These are just five simple ideas, but you can find more on the Internet!

Imperatives for giving tips and instructions

When you give tips and instructions, use the imperative.
Take a shower! Don't take a bath!

2 Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

3 When you need to print out a lot of pages, _____ on both sides.
4 _____ a few notes on a big piece of clean paper which you will throw away later.
5 _____ notebooks made of recycled paper.

4 In your notebook, write an instruction leaflet about how to reduce paper waste. Use the notes in the box and the tips in Exercise 3 to help you.

1 Write an introduction.
Explain the problem:
People cut down …
Tell the reader that the leaflet has some tips:
Here are … tips for …
2 Write four or five tips. You can use: imperatives (use, buy, don't print), sentences with if, sentences with can and should.
3 Write a short conclusion, e.g. tell the reader where he/she can find more information.
