

Vox pops

- 1 Think of three people or places that have been in the news recently. Write them down and show a partner. Does your partner know why they were in the news?

- 2 Watch the video. Do the tasks.

How often do you read, listen to or watch the news?

- 1 How often do the speakers read, listen to or watch the news? Circle the correct options.

- | | | |
|-----------|----------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1 Dan | every day | every week |
| 2 Andrew | once a week | once a day |
| 3 Phyllis | never | every day |
| 4 Sophie | every day | every other day |
| 5 Bruce | twice or more times a day | every two or three days |

Do you prefer to get the news from the television, newspapers or online?

- 2 Tick (✓) one column for each speaker.

	television	radio	online
1 Dan
2 Andrew
3 Phyllis
4 Sophie
5 Bruce

- 3 Work in small groups. You are going to write a short news quiz. Think of current news stories. Use the same news stories you thought of in exercise 1 if you want. Then make five questions.
What happened in ...? What is the name of ...?
Why was ... in the news this week?

Work with another group. Read your questions to each other.
Did you choose the same stories?

