Unit 3 Test | B

Reading

6 Read the article and choose the correct answer.

My new life!

My name is Jenna. I'm from Chicago in the USA, but now I live in Beijing.

Life here is very different from the USA. I get up at 5.30 a.m. Monday to Friday, and I have breakfast at 6 a.m. I have cereal, fruit and milk, but my Chinese friends have soup, chicken and eggs. School starts at 7.30 a.m. There's a break in the morning, and we can go outside. The boys usually play sport, and the girls dance to music. We have lunch at 11.45 a.m. – and then we sleep at our desks!

Students in China usually go home at 5.30 p.m., but sometimes they have dinner at school. After dinner, they do homework and then they go home at 7.45 p.m. In Chicago, I have more free time. We finish school at 3.30 p.m. – we never have dinner at school, and we don't do homework there. We usually meet our friends at the park, or we go shopping.

Sometimes, I feel bored in lessons because I don't speak much Chinese. I never feel very relaxed, but I'm happy in China.
