

COMPLETE THE DIALOGUE WITH THE WORDS IN THE BOX.

any somewhere anything no something some

- Lisa I'm hungry.
- May Let's cook (1) _____. What would you like to eat?
- Lisa I'm not sure. Let's make (2) _____ snacks.
- May What about sandwiches?
- Lisa We can't. There's (3) _____ bread.
- May Well, are there (4) _____ eggs? We can make an omelette.
- Lisa I'm afraid not. Actually, there isn't (5) _____ in the fridge.
- May That's OK. We can order pizza from the new pizza place, Giovanni's. Have you got the menu?
- Lisa Yes, it's (6) _____ in the kitchen, I think.

Choose a, b or c.

1. A: I think I saw _____ in the computer lab.
B: Maybe it's Mrs Brown.
a. everyone      b. no one      c. someone
2. This restaurant is too crowded. You can't find a chair _____.
a. nowhere      b. anywhere      c. everywhere
3. A: Can I offer you _____ to drink?
B: A cup of tea, please. Thank you.
a. everything      b. nothing      c. something
4. I'm upset with Audrey. She told _____ about my problem.
a. anybody      b. nobody      c. everybody
5. A woman has just moved next door, but we know _____ about her.
a. nothing      b. anything      c. everything
6. There's a ladder _____ in the basement. Can you bring it, please?
a. nowhere      b. somewhere      c. everywhere