

Choose the most appropriate forms of will and be going to for the gaps below.

1. A: I don't think he _____ come tonight.
B: But he says he _____ come.
2. A: I've bought this paint because I _____ paint the kitchen.
B: I'm sure it _____ look fantastic.
3. A: What _____ do after you graduate?
B: I _____ travel around the world.
4. A: _____ go for a walk later?
B: No, I _____ stay home. I have homework to do.
5. A: I have bought this camera because I _____ take some pictures on my trip.
But I still don't know how it works.
B: Don't worry. I _____ show you.

Theory question: What do we use will for? _____
going to for? _____

Reorder the words to form the correct affirmative, negative and interrogative forms of sentences in the Past Simple tense.

1. I / bus / to work today / take

2. finish / homework / she / and / to her class / go

3. arrive late / the plane / not depart on time, / so we / to the hotel

4. when / meet / she / her friend ?

5. last year / they / their car / buy

Theory question: What auxiliary do we use to form the negative and interrogative forms of Past Simple? _____

Choose the correct option to complete the sentences in the Past Perfect tense. Look out – there's and odd one out!

1. _____ the expiration date before you used the milk?
 - Had you checked
 - Have you checked
 - Did you checked
2. We _____ at the gym before we were introduced by friends again at a bar.
 - met
 - had met
 - been met

3. Kiara did not attend school as she _____ her alarm that morning.
 - had not hear
 - did not heard
 - had not heard
4. I was lucky Tom _____ home yet when I went back for my wallet.
 - left
 - had not left
 - did leave
5. Cien años de soledad by Gabriel García Márquez _____ in 1967.
 - been published
 - was published
 - had published

Theory question: What kind of situation does the highlighted part of the following sentence correspond to?

I had baked a cake before he came home.

Fill the gaps with the correct auxiliary and conjugation to make sentences into the Present Perfect tense.

1. Someone _____ (eat) all the chocolate!
2. A: Do you know him?
B: Not really. I _____ (hear) his name, but I _____ (not meet) him before.
3. After thinking about it, we _____ (decide) to travel to Germany as we _____ (not do) it yet. We _____ (never be) to it.
4. _____ Louise _____ (already choose) which boots she will be taking?
5. It _____ (become) very difficult to book a table at this bar. It is always so full!

Theory question: Where do adverbs like ever, never, yet and just take place in a sentence? _____