

The creator of Mickey Mouse and founder of Disneyland and Walt Disney World was born in Chicago, Illinois, on December 5, 1901. Raised on a farm near Marceline, Missouri, Walt early became interested in drawing. Mickey Mouse was created in 1928.

Walt Disney and Roy O. Disney founded the Disney Brothers Cartoon Studio in Los Angeles in 1923 and got their start producing a series of silent Alice Comedies short films. In 1926, the studio changed its name to Walt Disney Studio, then as Walt Disney Productions in 1929.

Snow White and seven dwarfs is a 1937 musical comedy fantasy animated film. It is America's and, also, one of the world's first animated films and the first one in the world to be translated in English; and the first movie to be photographed in Technicolor. The film was adapted from the fairy tale by the Brothers Grimm, in which an evil queen attempts to have her stepdaughter, Snow White, murdered in jealousy of her beauty.

Ratatouille tells the story of Remy (voiced by Patton Oswalt), a rat living in Paris who wants to be a chef. Remy is a rat who lives in the attic of a French country home with his friends and family, including his brother Emile and his father, Django. Gifted with a strong sense of taste and smell, Remy aspires to be a gourmet chef.

Bambi is about the adventures of Bambi, a deer whose father is the Great Prince of the Forest. From birth Bambi is guided through life by his mother and a group of woodland friends, including a rabbit named Thumper. While playing in a meadow one day, Bambi meets a female fawn, Faline. Months later Bambi's beloved mother is killed by a hunter, forcing Bambi to grow up on his own.

In Inside out Riley is guided by her emotions – Joy, Fear, Anger, Disgust and Sadness. The emotions live in Headquarters, the control center inside Riley's mind, where they help advise her through everyday life. Although Joy, Riley's main and most important emotion, tries to keep things positive, the emotions conflict on how best to navigate a new city, house and school.
