

Future Tenses Review Worksheet 3
9th Grade Grammar Practice

Part 3: Choosing the Correct Future Tense (Advanced Level)

C. Multiple-Choice Questions

Choose the correct future tense to complete each sentence.

1. I (will call / am calling / will have called) you as soon as I arrive.
 2. This time next year, I (will be working / am working / will have worked) at a new company.
 3. By the time we reach the airport, the plane (will take off / will have taken off / is taking off).
 4. Look at that child! He (will fall / is going to fall / falls) off his bike!
 5. By 2050, scientists (will invent / will have invented / will be inventing) new sources of energy.
 6. We (will have finished / are finishing / will finish) our exams by next week.
 7. I (will be sleeping / will sleep / will have slept) when you arrive, so please be quiet.
 8. My sister (is getting married / will get married / will have gotten married) in June.
 9. By 10 p.m. tonight, I (will complete / will have completed / will be completing) my essay.
 10. Tomorrow at this time, we (will have traveled / will be traveling / are going to travel) to the mountains.
-

Part 4: Future Tenses in Context (Extended Practice)

D. Complete the Texts with the Correct Future Tense

1. Describing your life five years from now

1. In five years, I _____ (live) in a new city, and I _____ (graduate) from university with a degree in business.
2. By the time I finish my studies, I _____ (gain) valuable work experience through internships, and I _____ (start) my first full-time job at a well-known company.
3. I hope I _____ (still/pursue) my hobbies, like dancing and traveling, and I _____ (learn) new skills that will help me in my career.
4. By then, I _____ (make) new friends, and I _____ (build) a strong professional network.
5. I _____ (continue) to work hard, and I _____ (take) on exciting challenges in my job.
6. I _____ (move) to a bigger apartment next year because I _____ (need) more space for my growing collection of books and other things.

7. In five years, I _____ (have) a well-established career, and I _____ (consider) further studies to advance my knowledge even more.
 8. I am certain that by that time, I _____ (travel) to several countries and _____ (experience) many new cultures.
 9. I _____ (not/let) myself become too busy for fun, and I _____ (make) time to do the things I love.
-

2. Predicting how technology will change in the next decade

1. In the next decade, technology _____ (evolve) dramatically, and we _____ (see) innovations that we cannot even imagine today.
 2. By 2035, self-driving cars _____ (be) the norm, and most people _____ (use) them to get around.
 3. The way we work _____ (change) as well. Many companies _____ (adopt) remote working technologies, and more employees _____ (work) from home than ever before.
 4. Virtual reality _____ (become) a part of everyday life. People _____ (use) VR to attend meetings, visit virtual museums, and socialize with friends.
 5. Scientists _____ (develop) new ways to produce clean energy, and by then, most homes _____ (run) on renewable energy sources.
 6. I am sure that by 2030, the way we communicate _____ (have) completely changed. We _____ (use) augmented reality glasses to have conversations and interact with the world.
 7. By the time I turn 40, I _____ (own) a flying car, and I _____ (travel) across the city in minutes instead of hours.
 8. New technologies in healthcare _____ (enable) doctors to treat diseases more effectively, and we _____ (live) longer, healthier lives.
 9. By 2040, robots _____ (perform) many tasks that humans _____ (do) today, and we _____ (need) to adapt to this new way of living.
-

3. Explaining your plans for the next school break

1. During the next school break, I _____ (relax) and _____ (recharge) after a busy semester.
2. I _____ (spend) some time with my family, and we _____ (travel) to the beach for a week of fun and relaxation.
3. I _____ (read) a few books I've been meaning to finish, and I _____ (start) a new hobby, like learning to play the guitar.
4. I _____ (not/work) during the break because I believe it's important to take a full break from school.

5. In the first few days, I _____ (do) some gardening and _____ (enjoy) the peace of nature.
 6. I _____ (visit) my grandparents next weekend, and we _____ (catch up) on everything we've missed.
 7. I _____ (not/forget) to plan a day out with my friends, and we _____ (go) to a concert together.
 8. By the end of the break, I _____ (have) some time to relax at home, and I _____ (spend) the final days preparing for the next semester.
 9. I _____ (reflect) on my goals for the next school year, and I _____ (make) a list of things I want to achieve.
 10. By the time I go back to school, I _____ (feel) completely refreshed and ready to take on new challenges.
-