📌 Read the passage and choose the correct preposition from the options.

Anna is in her bedroom. Her bed is ___ (next to / behind / in front of) the wall. There is a small table ___ (in / on / next to) her bed, and a lamp is ___ (on / under / between) the table. A big window is ___ (above / in front of / next to) her desk, and she can see the street. Her backpack is ___ (on / under / in) the chair, and her shoes are ___ (in / on / under) the bed. A bookshelf is ___ (between / behind / above) the door, and many books are ___ (on / in / under) the shelves.

Anna's room is small but cozy. There is a soft rug ___ (on / above / between) the floor, and a cat is sleeping ___ (on / under / next to) it. A big mirror is hanging ___ (on / in / between) the wall, just ___ (above / behind / next to) her dresser. On the dresser, there is a jewelry box ___ (under / next to / in front of) a hairbrush. Anna's phone is charging ___ (on / under / next to) the nightstand, and her schoolbag is leaning ___ (on / in / against) the chair.

Outside the window, there is a tree ___ (between / in front of / behind) her house. A bird is sitting ___ (on / under / next to) the tree, singing happily. A bicycle is parked ___ (next to / in / under) the garage, and a soccer ball is rolling ___ (behind / under / above) it. The neighbors' dog is running ___ (in / through / behind) the garden, chasing a butterfly. Anna smiles as she looks around—everything is in its place.

LIVEWORKSHEETS