2A Simple present: affirmative and negative

We use the simple present to talk about:

- facts.

I'm Italian.

We live in New York.

He doesn't work at a restaurant.

- regular routines.

I work every day.

We go to the movies on the weekend.

They get up at 10 on Sundays.

We form negatives with don't/doesn't + the base form of the verb.

 2.3	I / you / we / they	he / she / it
+	We work in a hospital.	Laura works in an office.
	I teach English.	He teaches Japanese.
	They have a new car.	She has a beautiful apartment.
	You make great coffee.	Simon makes good tea.
-	We don't work in a school.	Paul doesn't work in a store.
	I don't teach French.	He doesn't teach in a school.
	They don't have a yard.	She doesn't have a dog.
	You don't love your job.	Damian doesn't love his girlfriend.

We usually add -s to the verb to make the third person singular (he/she/it) form.

He serves food in the restaurant.

She loves her job.

Ivan sings at festivals.

Camilla helps her parents on the weekend.

Spelling rules for third person singular (he/she/it)

We usually add -s to the base form.

work ⇒ works

When the verb ends in a consonant + y, we change the y to i and then we add -es.

study ⇒ studies

When the verb ends in -sh, -ch, -x or -s, we add -es.

finish ⇒ finishes watch ⇒ watches

Some verbs are irregular.

go ⇒ goes do ⇒ does have ⇒ has

1 Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

- 1 Adam have / has a job in a garage.
- 2 Dean likes Mexico, but he don't / doesn't like Mexico City.
