

READING PART 6: OPEN CLOZE GAPS FILL. FILL IN THE GAPS WITH ONE WORD

London

London is one _____ (1) the most emblematic cities on earth due to its long and industrious history. London has been the setting _____ (2) many famous films including Mary Poppins and 28 days later.

As London is the capital of England and The UK, it is _____ (3) a doubt the focal point of all the main activity. London is known for its nightlife and fashion, it also hosts _____ (4) sporting events at its many venues. it even hosted the 2012 Olympics.

London was founded on the shores of The River Thames in 43 AD. by the Romans and it _____ (5) named Londinium. Since then London has been a bustling trading station and now has _____ (6) population of over 7 million people.