3. Answer the questions using senses:

The diagram is a circular wheel with a child's face in the center. It is divided into five colored segments, each representing a sense. The segments are labeled with questions and contain icons related to that sense.

- Top Left (Blue): "What can I see?" with icons of a book, a rainbow, and a television.
- Top Right (Pink): "What can I feel?" with icons of a cloud with rain, a teddy bear, and a hand.
- Right (Orange): "What can I smell?" with icons of a cup of coffee, a bar of soap, and a daisy flower.
- Bottom (Yellow): "What can I taste?" with icons of a strawberry, an ice cream cone, and a piece of chocolate.
- Bottom Left (Green): "What can I hear?" with icons of a drill, an ambulance, and a bell.

Surrounding the wheel are boxes for answers:

- Top Left: "He can see a book" (pre-filled), "a rainbow" (pre-filled), and a blank box.
- Top Right: "He can touch the rain" (pre-filled), a blank box, and "a lollipop" (pre-filled).
- Right: "coffee" (pre-filled), "He can smell soap" (pre-filled), and a blank box.
- Bottom: "ice cream" (pre-filled) and a blank box.
- Bottom Left: "He can taste strawberry" (pre-filled) and a blank box.
- Left: "He can hear a drill" (pre-filled), "an ambulance" (pre-filled), and "a bell" (pre-filled).
