My friend Emma

A
My friend Emma is an interesting person. She's Mexican, but now she lives in Berlin. She is married to Stefan and he is from Germany. They have two children called Evan and Sophia. Evan is six years old and Sophia is four years old.

B
Emma's family is quite international. Her mother is Mexican and her father is American so Emma speaks Spanish and English fluently. Also, she speaks some German. She goes to German classes in the evenings and she practises with her husband and her children every day.

C
Emma is a digital designer. She likes her job because she works with lots of people around the world. Emma doesn't work in an office; she works from home. Emma gets up early and works in the mornings when her children are at school. Sometimes she works in the evenings, but she doesn't work at weekends.

D
Emma and her family live in a flat in the city. Emma doesn't like the city. She wants to move to a village and buy a big house, but Stefan likes the city. He enjoys going to the cinema and going out to restaurants with friends.

E
Emma likes to go running in the park and she plays tennis and football. She plays tennis with her sister twice a week, and plays football at the weekends with her children. She also likes cooking Asian food and she cooks for her family at the weekends. She makes lots of vegetarian food because it's healthy.
