STUDYING IN THE UK

Every year nearly 270,000 foreign students decide to study in the United Kingdom, which makes it one of the most popular destinations to study. British universities are among the best in the world and their degrees are recognised by employers worldwide. There is one serious drawback, though – the cost of studying at a British university is around £7,000 a year. The good news is that it's much less than in some other European countries. Also, you will graduate faster in the UK because the courses tend to be shorter.

However, if you find it hard to pay the tuition and accommodation costs, you can always work while you study. International students who study full-time are allowed to work for up to 20 hours a week. Another option is applying for a scholarship to help pay for education. So, don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today and start getting ready for an adventure!
