

Name:

Date:

How My Body Works

Instructions: Circle the correct answer to each question.

1. The small intestine has tiny hairy finger-like structures called
 - a. sacs.
 - b. villi.
 - c. esophagus.
 - d. rectum.

2. What tube sends food to the stomach?
 - a. diaphragm
 - b. esophagus
 - c. rectum
 - d. villi

3. The food we eat gets mashed and stirred with special juices in the stomach. This is called to
 - a. circulate
 - b. digest
 - c. ingest
 - d. breathe

4. What part is the food passing through as most nutrients are absorbed?
 - a. large intestine
 - b. small intestine
 - c. rectum
 - d. kidneys

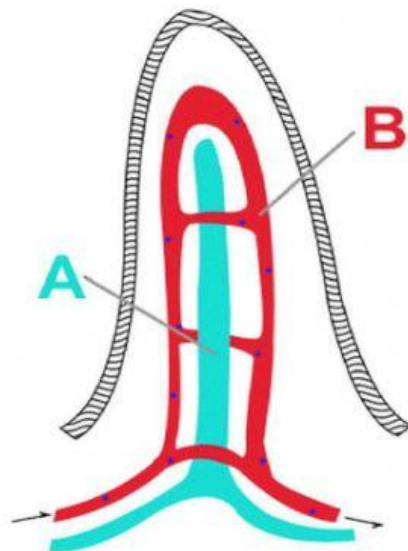

5. What organ is not a part of the digestive system?

- a. spleen
- b. stomach
- c. small intestine
- d. large intestine

6. How many hours does it take food to pass through the stomach and small intestines?

- a. 1-2
- b. 2-4
- c. 4-6
- d. 6-8

The following questions are related to the diagram of the villus.

7. What is the name of the structure labelled A?

8. What does the structure labelled A absorb?

_____ and _____

9. What is the name of the structure labelled B?

10. What does the structure labelled B absorb?