

Diagnostic Unit

I. Constructs historical interpretations

a. The Paleolithic

1) The Paleolithic and the Neolithic are stages of Prehistory called:

2) The Paleolithic times began around 300,000 years ago with the appearance of the first humans in _____

3) During the Paleolithic people lived in _____

4) They didn't settle in the same place, they travelled from one area to another looking for location to fish, hunt or collect food. This is why they are called _____

5) Fire was discovered during the Paleolithic times. _____

6) Paleolithic people paintings represented mostly their hunting activities. This kind of art is called _____

7) The first stone tools were made during the Paleolithic times. _____

8) As years went by people progressed improving their lifestyle. The practice of agriculture and cattle raising marked the end of the Paleolithic times and the beginning of _____

b. Neolithic Times

- 1) The Paleolithic and the Neolithic times belonged to an Age, the Stone Age. What is the name of the next age? After the Neolithic finished?

- 2) What does the word "Neolithic" mean? _____
- 3) The beginning of Neolithic times is marked by the practice of _____
- 4) During this time people didn't start to cultivate the land to grow food. _____
- 5) When they stopped travelling, they stopped being nomads, their lifestyle became _____
- 6) During the Neolithic, the wheel was invented. _____
- 7) Which of these WAS NOT discovered or done during the Neolithic? _____

