

Scenario: A receptionist, Emma, receives a phone call from a dissatisfied guest, Mrs. Brown, who stayed at the hotel last week. Mrs. Brown mentions a problem with room service and wants reassurance that her concerns will be addressed.

Activity: Choose the collocation that best completes the dialogue.

- Mrs. Brown: Hello, I stayed at your hotel last week, and I wasn't happy with the room service delay. I'd like to know what you're doing about it.
- Emma: Good afternoon, Mrs. Brown. Thank you for letting us know. We take all feedback seriously and want to address your concern / prevent dissatisfaction. Could you tell me more about the issue?
- Mrs. Brown: I waited almost an hour for my dinner, and when it arrived, it was cold. It really ruined my evening.
- Emma: I'm very sorry to hear that. We want to ensure this doesn't happen again. Our manager has reviewed the incident to build a relationship / prevent dissatisfaction in the future. We're also following up with our room service team to improve their efficiency.
- Mrs. Brown: I appreciate that.
- Emma: To follow through / maintain loyalty on our commitment to improving service, I'd like to offer you a voucher for your next stay. I'll also personally address your concern / follow up on your feedback to keep you updated.
- Mrs. Brown: That's very kind of you. Thank you.
- Emma: It's our priority to maintain loyalty / prevent dissatisfaction with our guests and build a lasting relationship. Please don't hesitate to reach out if you have further feedback.
