1 Warm up

In pairs, decide if the following sentences are dramatically correct.

1. Last night, we were eating dinner at a fancy restaurant. _____

2. The students were talking loudly, so the teacher asked them to be quiet. _____

3. While she read a book, her brother was playing video games. _____

2 Language point: past review (theory)

Complete the review of the past tense with 'simple' or 'continuous'.

Grammar review - simple or continuous?

- We use the past _____ [1] to talk about completed events in the past:

    I woke up this morning at 8 o'clock.

    Where did you go yesterday?

- We use the past _____ [2] to talk about unfinished activities that are in progress at a particular time in the past:

    I was sleeping at 7 o'clock this morning.

    He wasn't working at 6 o'clock.

- We use the past simple with the past _____ [3] to talk about a finished action that happened while another activity was in progress:

    I was sleeping when you called me.

    Were you having lunch when I arrived?

- Remember that some verbs are NEVER used with the past _____ [4]. These are called state verbs, e.g. love, like, know, need, want, hate, understand, etc

    I liked her very much. → (NOT I was liking her.)
