The Gingerbread Man

An old woman made a special gingerbread cookie. She wanted to eat him. The Gingerbread Man ran fast and shouted loudly, "You can't catch me, I'm the Gingerbread Man!" The woman followed the Gingerbread Man out of the house and chased him quickly.

He ran to the river. He wanted to cross the river, but he couldn't swim well. He saw a fox.

"I can swim," said the fox. "Sit on my nose."

The Gingerbread Man sat politely on the fox's nose and the fox ate him!
