WHAT IS PRESENT CONTINUOUS?

Present continuous is a verb tense that is used to describe and write sentences about something is happening at the moment

Unit #1

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Learning Objectives

- Understand the structure of present continuous
- Indentify the form and times of use of the present continuous for free time and hobbies

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Explanatory Video

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Activities

- Filling the blanks:

My father (am/are/is) _____ (drive) _____ a car.

I (am/are/is) _____ (jog) _____.

Sara (am not /are not /is not) _____ (comb) _____.

My dog (isn't/aren't/am not) _____ (play) _____ with his tail.

(am/are/is) _____ my guitar (get) _____ damaged?

(am/are/is) _____ they (kick) _____ a ball?

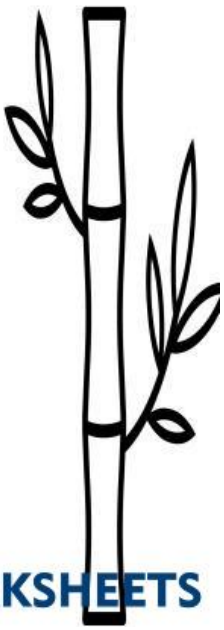
LIVEWORKSHEETS

Provide 10 examples of use of present continuous taking into account hobbies and free time activities:



LIVEWORKSHEETS

Assessment Activity

Write a ten-line paragraph describing What you think that people you know are doing right now:

LIVEWORKSHEETS