

Grammar Exercise: Fill in the Blanks

Instructions: Complete the sentences below using the correct collocation with go, take, get, or do. Use the words in parentheses to help you.

1. He suddenly _____ (off something) eating meat after watching a documentary about animals.
2. It's important to _____ (research) before making such a big decision.
3. He's been trying to _____ (a degree) so he can apply for his dream job.
4. I always _____ (exercise) in the morning to feel energized for the day.
5. She decided to _____ (a meal) with her colleagues to celebrate the promotion.
6. When we were younger, my brother always used to _____ (after somebody) me when we played games.
7. I struggled to _____ (on with someone) people at my last job, so I decided to leave.
8. Can you _____ (responsibility for) organizing the event? I'm too busy this week.
9. We should _____ (for a drink) after work to catch up on everything.
10. He's been working hard to _____ (a job) in the city, but the competition is tough.