Look, read and drag.

She works at a school.
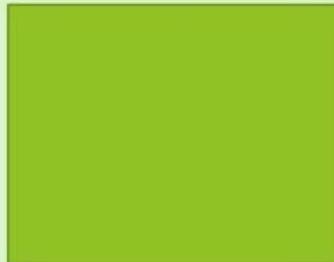

They work at a school.

1

2

He works at a police station.

They work at a police station.

1

2

Read and write TRUE or FALSE

A police officer works in the city. Police officers help people and keep the community safe. They stop crime and help in emergencies. They work in a police station.

A teacher works in a school. Teachers help students learn new things. They teach subjects like math, science, and English. They work in classrooms and use books, computers, and whiteboards. Police officers and teachers are important workers in our community. They help people every day!

• Police officers help people and keep the community safe.

• Police officers work in schools.

• Teachers teach subjects like math, science, and English.

• Teachers work in a police station.

•Police officers and teachers help people every day.