GE8 567 MIDTERM REVISION 2

1. Read and complete the following text with suitable words. Write ONE word for each gap.

The Legacy of Historical Figures

Many historical figures are (1) _____remembered for their contributions to society, and their achievements will (2) _____ celebrated for years to come. (3)_____ they lived in different times, their influence remains strong today.

One of the (4) _____ inspiring leaders in history was Nelson Mandela. While he was fighting against apartheid, he was imprisoned for 27 years. By the time he was released, he (5) _____ already become a global symbol (6) _____ peace and justice. In (7) _____ to unite his country, he forgave those who had once opposed him. His leadership was more influential (8) _____ many others in the 20th century, and he was one of the most respected political figures in history.

Another remarkable figure is Marie Curie, (9) _____ dedicated herself to scientific discovery. She had already made groundbreaking discoveries (10) _____ she won two Nobel Prizes. Whereas many women at that time were discouraged (11) _____ pursuing science, she proved (12) _____ determination and intelligence could change the world.

Leonardo da Vinci was not only a painter (13)_____ also an inventor and scientist. While he (14)_____ working on his famous paintings, such as the Mona Lisa, he was also designing machines that were ahead of his time. His notebooks, which are being studied by experts today, show his brilliant ideas.

These historical figures brought (15)_____ major changes in different fields. Their lives (16)_____ work are being taught in schools (17)_____ that future generations can learn from their achievements. Their contributions are not just part of the past; they continue to inspire us to work harder, think bigger, and strive for a better future.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Write a 150-word word biography about a historical figure including the following:

- Biographical details
- Historical background
- Achievements

LIVEWORKSHEETS