4 Read Pedro's diary and match.

I always leave home at quarter past seven every evening before my family have dinner. I start work at eight o'clock. I always have dinner at half past eleven. Work is always very busy and sometimes it is very difficult. I go home at five o'clock in the morning and I always go to bed. I get up at three o'clock and have a small breakfast. When my children come home, I help them with their homework. Then we take our dog for a walk. I have lunch at quarter past six – a sandwich and some fruit. I think my job is difficult but I love helping ill people.
